

1-2 MAN ROOM CLEARING

Cost: $650 | Length: 2 Days

This course covers the fundamentals of 'room clearing' from a theoretical and a practical standpoint. It includes some classroom presentation, but most of the time is spent in the shoot house doing force-on-target and force-on-force drills and exercises. We will discuss deliberate and dynamic clearing methods theoretically, but we will focus on a specific, hybrid method for practical application.

COURSE TOPICS

Psychological and physiological considerations for close-quarters battle (CQB) | Individual movement and weapon manipulation in and around structures | Room clearing theory and principles | Tools, techniques, and tactics for CQB | Deliberate, dynamic, and hybrid clearing methods

PREREQUISITES

This course is intended for patrol officers, but open to any lawfully armed US citizen with documented intermediate to advanced level pistol training.

EQUIPMENT

Duty pistol (tritium sights and weapon light recommended) | NLTA conversion kit for pistol (converted Glock pistols are available for use) | PPE (eye protection; hat or helmet; groin protection) | Notepad & pen | Approximately 200 rounds of NLTA ammunition (UTM ammo is available for purchase in our ProShop)

HOSTING REQUIREMENTS

To run this course at host locations, we need:

- 1) a classroom with multimedia capability (or at least power);
- 3) a shoot house or other structure that allows for NLTA training.

If you or your agency is interested in hosting, please contact us for pricing and other details.
